Hartford Police Crusade Against Loan Sharks

That the Hartford police mean busness in their crusade against the loan sharks became apparent when Dora Griffith, the Hartford agent for D. H. Tolman, was, arrested with a woman who was assisting her in the office Friday afternoon. Miss Griffith was Friday afternoon. Miss Griffith was later released, under bonds of $2,000 furnished by W. E. Baker & Son, and ne other woman, who was entered on ne blotter as "Mary Doe," after she ad persistently refused to tell her name, was allowed to go after furnishing a bond for $500. The Griffith wo-man was recently arrested and fined in the police court, and an appeal was taken to the Superior court, and at the time of her recent arrest she was already under bonds of $1,000 to appear before the next term of the Su-
